Stockholders Object to Fablus Clark for the Place,

Application was made before Judge Mcreceiver of the New York Concert Company The application was signed by Rudolph urer ; H. S. Mendelson, Francis H. Kimball, H. L. Kingsbury and William J. French, who requested the appointment of Fablus M. Clark, an attorney, as receiver. The fact that the Casino was floundering in debt and that the stockholders have been in a ferment of dissensions has been known for me time, and a crowd of those interested were present in the court-room this morning A half dozen attorneys represented different factions, and scarcely had Lawyer David Leventitt presented the petition for the directors when Attorney Phelps, of Blair & Phelps, representing James B. Clews, C. H. Blair, E.C. Stanton, and other stockholders amounced that although he did not know Mr. Clark, he was opposed to his appointment or that of any other man suggested by the Aronsons. appointment or that of any other man sug-gested by the Aronsons.

He said the first duty of a receiver would be to sue the Casino's present management, and, therefore, he thought some distinterested party should be appointed.

Attorney Gibson Futzel, representing credi-tors, and Attorney Blen, representing him-self and other stockholders, made similar atatements, the latter declaring that if didn't make any difference who Clark is, for he was against him.

Ex-Judge Arnoux, trustee for the bondholders, and who has a mortgage on leasehold property to secure $88,000, was in the courtroom, but did not address the court.

Judge McAdam said he would consult his associates before appointing a receiver. He gave attorneys fill 12 o'clock to-morrow to file papers. He said the name of any man suggested for the place, except the one suggested by the directors, would not be considered.

The statement filed gave the assets as follows:

The capital stock issued was $169,750, making a total of $460,356.57.
